

Utah School Employee Association

Judging Criteria for Outstanding Employees

ELIGIBILITY AND QUALIFICATIONS

Educational support personnel who have been active; dues paying members of the Utah School Employee Association for at least one year are eligible to be nominated for this award.

The following qualifications shall be considered:

- Demonstrated efficiency and initiative in the performance of work as a classified employee.
- Personal commitment and leadership in community activities. Personal achievements that resulted in distinct benefits to the community.
- Demonstrated distinctive leadership and teamwork professionally.
- The individual improved the overall image of classified employees, consistently willing to go above and beyond what is expected.
- Taken an active role in local and/or state associations.
- The individual rendered excellent, diligent, dependable and trustworthy performance in their assigned duties. Such factors may include, but are not limited to:
 - Attitude and adaptability
 - Relationships with co-workers
 - Workload handled under unusual conditions

Any member of the selection committee personally acquainted with a candidate being considered for this award should excuse themselves during the selection process.